

A wise person has said, "A quilter needs only fabric, needle, thread and chocolate!"

Gather your friends for the
THIRD ANNUAL EUPHORIC APPLIQUÉ and QUILTING GETAWAY

Award winning quilters all – Kathy Delaney and Tresa Jones – will guide you through a weekend devoted to appliqué and quilting.

February 23-25, 2007

Tall Oaks Conference Center, Linwood, KS (just north of De Soto) – in a lovely woodland setting. Be pampered by the staff as they do ALL the cooking!

Kathy Delaney and Tresa Jones will, once again, bring you a great weekend of appliqué and quilting techniques, using an original pattern designed just for you.

The dictionary says the definition of euphoria is "a feeling of well being or elation."

A quilter says the definition of euphoria is: chocolate, friendship, and quiltmaking!

A Friday evening Chocolate Bar will begin the euphoric weekend.
A scrumptious array of chocolate treats is sure to set the mood!

The weekend will be full of surprises. You will not want to miss it!

A project to excite all skill levels will be taught by 3 award-winning quilting teachers.

Getaway fee is $300.00 per person for Triple/Quad occupancy or $395.00 per person for Double occupancy.

The all-inclusive fee covers 2 nights lodging, 5 meals,
Chocolate Bar, pattern, instruction and lots of surprises.

A Deposit of $150 will save your space. Hurry, as space is limited!

You'll find pictures of previous Getaway projects on our websites. Just click Getaway.
