

Baltimore on the Prairie
September 10 – 13, 2009

Baltimore on the Prairie is a new conference focusing on techniques in the Baltimore Album style of the mid 1800's. It offers teaching by quilt artists in a relaxed, comfortable setting accompanied by good food and long lasting friendships.

The conference will be held at the Peter Kiewit Lodge at Mahoney State Park, easily accessible just off Interstate 80 midway between Omaha and Lincoln, NE. The lodge is located upon the oak bluff overlooking the scenic Platte River Valley.

A well known teaching faculty has been assembled: Nancy Kerns, Kathy Delaney and Nadine Thompson; whose classes will cover all skill levels from the very beginning basics to advanced Baltimore techniques.

Conference registration is all inclusive which includes 2 full and 2 partial days of classes, 3 nights lodging, 9 meals, 3 evening events and surprises along the way.

Priority registration between July 14, 2008 and September 5, 2008 assures you of being in the first group of registrants to choose your class when general registration begins March 1, 2009. Please read the Priority Registration form for more details.
